RETURN DATE: MAY 31, 2022 : SUPERIOR COURT
PHOUMARETH
PHOUANGPHIARITH : J.D. OF ANSONIA-
: MILFORD
V. : AT MILFORD
TOWN OF SEYMOUR : MAY 6, 2022

ORDER FOR EX PARTE TEMPORARY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

The Plaintiff's Verified Complaint and Application for Injunctive Relief, having come before the Court pursuant to an Order to Show Cause why injunctive relief should not issue as prayed for, and the parties appeared and were fully heard and that for good cause shown the undersigned is of the opinion that ex parte injunctive relief ought to issue without bond. Therefore, by the authority of the Connecticut Superior Court, the Defendant is hereby:

1. Required to cease and desist any and all efforts to terminate or otherwise alter the Plaintiff's position, pay, and rank, as a sergeant and officer of the Defendant, the Town of Seymour, between now and the hearing date related to the dispute that is subject of this litigation; and

2. The Defendant is enjoined and prevented from demoting the Plaintiff on the basis of the exam that is subject of this litigation until further order of this Court.

Dated at JD Of Ansonia-Milford, Connecticut, on this 6th day of May, 2022.
